

Dear FCC

No. of Copies rec'd
List ABCDE

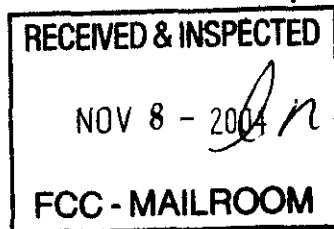

0

Oct. /04

Please don't take my air 1 Radio Station away and replace it with a low power FM station.

Air 1 Radio station is a blessing to me and my community. Each day ~~it~~ ~~gives~~ ~~me~~ ~~valued~~ ~~music~~ ~~and~~ ~~hope~~ ~~giving~~ ~~my~~ ~~three~~ ~~souls~~ ~~and~~ ~~myself~~ ~~encouragement~~ ~~and~~ ~~impacting~~ ~~our~~ ~~lives~~. In return we give back to our community by taking time to say kind words to someone, picking up trash around our community roads; giving to those that need help just the little things that make a difference and its because of air 1. Music changes lives, when your happy, sad, lonely, you listen to music and its a healing it speaks to your heart. This station ⁰⁴⁻²³³ Daved lived, it gives out the message of love and hope, that you are not alone.

So many people are lost and alone and if ~~they~~ I know many have happened to turn to air 1 and heard the message of ~~hope~~ and didn't give up that day, but lived to see a new day and begin a new beginning. When my Son's become men, I know that listening to air 1 (yes a Radio Station) will be a factor in the strong men of integrity I will see before me.
In conclusion I again ask please don't take air ~~love~~ away from the families, the communities all of us who need and love air 1 so much.

In faith and with hope
Sincerely, Sonya M. Noble

DOCKET FILE COPY DUE DATE

To the FCC ~

K-LOVE is a regularly listened to radio station in our house. The kids enjoy it and my husband and I don't have to worry about inappropriate messages or language.

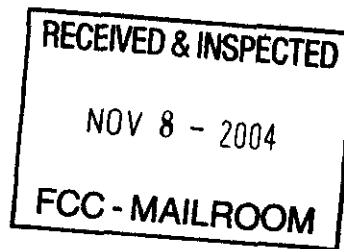

Please keep K-LOVE on FM not LPFM. K-LOVE gives the community an alternative to other radio stations.

Consider families in your decision.

3-795-9004 Cynthia Schallennmuller
7148 S. Grant St. Centl. Co. 8022

October 22, 2004

FCC
445 - 12th Street SW
Washington, DC 20554

RE: Low Power FM Stations, ^{MB} Docket # 04-233

Dear FCC:

I am writing to you to express my concern over LPFM stations taking precedence over the present FM stations that are now broadcasting in my area.

I live in Bakersfield, California and have listened to 89.5 FM - KLOVE for at least five years. KLOVE radio station has ministered to me in many different ways. My husband died in 1999, my children have experienced loss of jobs, surgeries, illnesses; and listening to KLOVE has been a source of encouragement and comfort for me during these times.

If a LPFM station displaces KLOVE, the community would be losing a station that encourages Christian values, a source of music that is uplifting, and a station that promotes wholesome family values.

There are so few radio stations that are "easy" and "refreshing" to listen to. The language and content of some of the stations (especially early in the morning or late afternoon) is distressing and is not in the best interests of our community or the children that live in Bakersfield. Please do not replace KLOVE with LPFM.

I am a financial supporter of KLOVE Radio and want it to continue to serve our community.

Thank you,

A handwritten signature in cursive script that reads "Nancy Reid".

Nancy Reid
3805 Millay Way
Bakersfield, CA 93311

No. of Copies rec'd _____
List ABCDE _____

A handwritten circle, likely representing the number 1, indicating one copy was received.

RECEIVED & INSPECTED

NOV 8 - 2004

FCC - MAILROOM

04-233

To Whom It May Concern,

I was deeply disturbed to hear that a proposal to expand LPFM services would take priority over the current FM stations, like Air 1. Air 1 provides an invaluable service to hundreds of thousands of listeners through its FM translator. The Christian music played on this station is upbeat, inspirational and truly lifts the heart of all who listen. I am a high school student, and Air 1 reaches the students in an extremely rare way. In the mainstream world of music, violent, offensive and often hopeless messages are communicated to teenage audiences through the music's lyrics. In comparison, Air 1 sends the message of God's love and hope into cities, homes, schools and work places all across America. The student's youth groups play Air 1 every week and I have seen first hand the impact it has on the students. Friends, acquaintances and strangers all have been affected by the positive messages Air 1 communicates, forsaking secular music and faithfully tuning into to Air 1 daily. The immense value of the station's musical content is indescribable. Air 1 takes special care to encourage its listeners to become better people and to draw near to God, and in return, has accumulated a large and diverse following, ranging from rehabilitated teenagers, parents, young adults, and even children.

Air 1 is not only an immeasurable blessing in my own life but it provides many necessary services to the general public. Air 1 is intimately connected with churches across America and informs music-lovers of up upcoming concerts, events and festivals. But the Air 1 radio station goes far above and beyond just playing contemporary music and informing the public of impending events; it provides twenty-four hour Christian support to Christians and non-Christians alike. A hotline where listeners can submit prayer requests any time, day or night, strengthens the Christian community and lets others know that someone does care about their life's struggles. The staff of Air 1 convenes multiple times per day to pray for the situations affecting their listeners. Five full-time pastors are on staff at Air 1, solely for the purpose of counseling those in distress. Listeners can call in and receive assistance from these trained professionals who provide aid for a broad spectrum of circumstances, ranging from domestic issues, addictions, felony offenses, suicide contemplation and depression. The unswerving availability of these resources and the competent assistance they provide are essential to a healthy community and are especially cherished by those who would otherwise have no where else to turn for help.

No. of Copies rec'd
List ABCDE

Perhaps one of the services most appreciated by parents, is the child-friendly environment provided for under-age listeners. Air 1 broadcasts over the airwaves music and commentary free of profanity, crass humor, and raunchy dialogue. Attentive parents have no qualms about allowing this clean and moral station to reach the ears of their impressionable young ones. Air 1 also plays messages in between songs that entreat listeners to donate their time to improving the communities. These messages promote the active support of local homeless shelters and even an international mission to alleviate impoverished orphans in Cambodia. Some messages contain parental strategies suggested by Christian psychologists. Others share tips relating to marital health and conflict resolution. Some narratives relate a personal account of how Jesus Christ has dramatically impacted their lives. Needless to say, these messages uplift listeners and encourage them to improve not only the charitable institutions in their community and world-wide, but also the personal relationships in their own lives. Depriving the public of such powerful and constructive resources would be severely detrimental to individuals and the community as a whole.

If Air 1 were to be taken off the air, the general public would lose one of the last remaining sources of positive influence. There would be no music communicating the hope and joy of Jesus Christ to troubled teenagers. Youth groups would have no contemporary music to play at their gatherings. Parents would be deprived of the safe radio environment they have come to depend on for their children. Young adults would have no upbeat inspirational music to sing along with while driving. And the influential voices promoting community service and fraternity would forever be silenced. I can honestly not fathom how different my life and the lives of people in my acquaintance would be if Air 1 was not there to turn to. Please, in light of this radio station's importance, reconsider the proposed rule changes that would force Air 1 off the air. It means too much to too many, for Federal Communications Commission to ignore.

Sincerely,

Erin Dewyn

RECEIVED & INSPECTED

NOV 8 - 2004

FCC MAILROOM

To Whom It May Concern,

I was deeply disturbed to hear that a proposal to expand LBFM services would take priority over the current FM stations, like Air 1. Air 1 provides an invaluable service to hundreds of thousands of listeners through its FM translator. The Christian music played on this station is upbeat, inspirational and truly lifts the heart of all who listen. I am a grandfather and Air 1 reaches my grandchildren in an extremely rare way. In the mainstream world of music, violent, offensive and often hopeless messages are communicated to teenage audiences through the music's lyrics. In comparison, Air 1 sends the message of God's love and hope into cities, homes, schools and work places all across America. My grandchildren's youth group plays Air 1 every week and I have seen first hand the impact it has the children. Friends, acquaintances and strangers all have been affected by the positive messages Air 1 communicates, forsaking secular music and faithfully tuning into to Air 1 daily. The immense value of the station's musical content is indescribable. Air 1 takes special care to encourage its listeners to become better people and to draw near to God, and in return, has accumulated a large and diverse following, ranging from rehabilitated teenagers, parents, young adults, and even children.

Air 1 is not only an immeasurable blessing in my own life but it provides many necessary services to the general public. Air 1 is intimately connected with churches across America and informs music-lovers of up upcoming concerts, events and festivals. But the Air 1 radio station goes far above and beyond just playing contemporary music and informing the public of impending events; it provides twenty-four hour Christian support to Christians and non-Christians alike. A hotline where listeners can submit prayer requests any time, day or night, strengthens the Christian community and lets others know that someone does care about their life's struggles. The staff of Air 1 convenes multiple times per day to pray for the situations affecting their listeners. Five full-time pastors are on staff at Air 1, solely for the purpose of counseling those in distress. Listeners can call in and receive assistance from these trained professionals who provide aid for a broad spectrum of circumstances, ranging from domestic issues, addictions, felony offenses, suicide contemplation and depression. The unswerving availability of these resources and the competent assistance they provide are essential to a healthy community and are especially cherished by those who would otherwise have no where else to turn for help.

No. of Copies rec'd _____
List ABCDE _____

Perhaps one of the services most appreciated by parents, is the child-friendly environment provided for under-age listeners. Air 1 broadcasts over the airwaves music and commentary free of profanity, crass humor, and raunchy dialogue. Attentive parents have no qualms about allowing this clean and moral station to reach the ears of their impressionable young ones. Air 1 also plays messages in between songs that entreat listeners to donate their time to improving the communities. These messages promote the active support of local homeless shelters and even an international mission to alleviate impoverished orphans in Cambodia. Some messages contain parental strategies suggested by Christian psychologists. Others share tips relating to marital health and conflict resolution. Some narratives relate a personal account of how Jesus Christ has dramatically impacted their lives. Needless to say, these messages uplift listeners and encourage them to improve not only the charitable institutions in their community and world-wide, but also the personal relationships in their own lives. Depriving the public of such powerful and constructive resources would be severely detrimental to individuals and the community as a whole.

If Air 1 were to be taken off the air, the general public would lose one of the last remaining sources of positive influence. There would be no music communicating the hope and joy of Jesus Christ to troubled teenagers. Youth groups would have no contemporary music to play at their gatherings. Parents would be deprived of the safe radio environment they have come to depend on for their children. Young adults would have no upbeat inspirational music to sing along with while driving. And the influential voices promoting community service and fraternity would forever be silenced. I can honestly not fathom how different my life and the lives of people in my acquaintance would be if Air 1 was not there to turn to. Please, in light of this radio station's importance, reconsider the proposed rule changes that would force Air 1 off the air. It means too much to too many, for Federal Communications Commission to ignore.

Sincerely,

James C. Storm

To Whom It May Concern,

I was deeply disturbed to hear that a proposal to expand LPFM services would take priority over the current FM stations, like Air 1. Air 1 provides an invaluable service to hundreds of thousands of listeners through its FM translator. The Christian music played on this station is upbeat, inspirational and truly lifts the heart of all who listen. I am a mother of three and Air 1 reaches my children in an extremely rare way. In the mainstream world of music, violent, offensive and often hopeless messages are communicated to teenage audiences through the music's lyrics. In comparison, Air 1 sends the message of God's love and hope into cities, homes, schools and work places all across America. My church's youth group plays Air 1 every week and I have seen first hand the impact it has the children. Friends, acquaintances and strangers all have been affected by the positive messages Air 1 communicates, forsaking secular music and faithfully tuning into to Air 1 daily. The immense value of the station's musical content is indescribable. Air 1 takes special care to encourage its listeners to become better people and to draw near to God, and in return, has accumulated a large and diverse following, ranging from rehabilitated teenagers, parents, young adults, and even children.

Air 1 is not only an immeasurable blessing in my own life but it provides many necessary services to the general public. Air 1 is intimately connected with churches across America and informs music-lovers of up upcoming concerts, events and festivals. But the Air 1 radio station goes far above and beyond just playing contemporary music and informing the public of impending events; it provides twenty-four hour Christian support to Christians and non-Christians alike. A hotline where listeners can submit prayer requests any time, day or night, strengthens the Christian community and lets others know that someone does care about their life's struggles. The staff of Air 1 convenes multiple times per day to pray for the situations affecting their listeners. Five full-time pastors are on staff at Air 1, solely for the purpose of counseling those in distress. Listeners can call in and receive assistance from these trained professionals who provide aid for a broad spectrum of circumstances, ranging from domestic issues, addictions, felony offenses, suicide contemplation and depression. The unswerving availability of these resources and the competent assistance they provide are essential to a healthy community and are especially cherished by those who would otherwise have no where else to turn for help.

No. of Copies rec'd _____
List ABCDE _____

Perhaps one of the services most appreciated by parents, is the child-friendly environment provided for under-age listeners. Air 1 broadcasts over the airwaves music and commentary free of profanity, crass humor, and raunchy dialogue. Attentive parents have no qualms about allowing this clean and moral station to reach the ears of their impressionable young ones. Air 1 also plays messages in between songs that entreat listeners to donate their time to improving the communities. These messages promote the active support of local homeless shelters and even an international mission to alleviate impoverished orphans in Cambodia. Some messages contain parental strategies suggested by Christian psychologists. Others share tips relating to marital health and conflict resolution. Some narratives relate a personal account of how Jesus Christ has dramatically impacted their lives. Needless to say, these messages uplift listeners and encourage them to improve not only the charitable institutions in their community and world-wide, but also the personal relationships in their own lives. Depriving the public of such powerful and constructive resources would be severely detrimental to individuals and the community as a whole.

If Air 1 were to be taken off the air, the general public would lose one of the last remaining sources of positive influence. There would be no music communicating the hope and joy of Jesus Christ to troubled teenagers. Youth groups would have no contemporary music to play at their gatherings. Parents would be deprived of the safe radio environment they have come to depend on for their children. Young adults would have no upbeat inspirational music to sing along with while driving. And the influential voices promoting community service and fraternity would forever be silenced. I can honestly not fathom how different my life and the lives of people in my acquaintance would be if Air 1 was not there to turn to. Please, in light of this radio station's importance, reconsider the proposed rule changes that would force Air 1 off the air. It means too much to too many, for Federal Communications Commission to ignore.

Sincerely,

Laina Dahl

RECEIVED & INSPECTED

NOV 8 - 2004

FOO MAIL ROOM

To Whom It May Concern,

I was deeply disturbed to hear that a proposal to expand LPFM services would take priority over the current FM stations, like Air 1. Air 1 provides an invaluable service to hundreds of thousands of listeners through its FM translator. The Christian music played on this station is upbeat, inspirational and truly lifts the heart of all who listen. I am a Junior in High School and Air 1 reaches my peers in an extremely rare way. In the mainstream world of music, violent, offensive and often hopeless messages are communicated to teenage audiences through the music's lyrics. In comparison, Air 1 sends the message of God's love and hope into cities, homes, schools and work places all across America. My church's youth group plays Air 1 every week and I have seen first hand the impact it has on my peers. Friends, acquaintances and strangers all have been affected by the positive messages Air 1 communicates, forsaking secular music and faithfully tuning into to Air 1 daily. The immense value of the station's musical content is indescribable. Air 1 takes special care to encourage its listeners to become better people and to draw near to God, and in return, has accumulated a large and diverse following, ranging from rehabilitated teenagers, parents, young adults, and even children.

Air 1 is not only an immeasurable blessing in my own life but it provides many necessary services to the general public. Air 1 is intimately connected with churches across America and informs music-lovers of up upcoming concerts, events and festivals. But the Air 1 radio station goes far above and beyond just playing contemporary music and informing the public of impending events; it provides twenty-four hour Christian support to Christians and non-Christians alike. A hotline where listeners can submit prayer requests any time, day or night, strengthens the Christian community and lets others know that someone does care about their life's struggles. The staff of Air 1 convenes multiple times per day to pray for the situations affecting their listeners. Five full-time pastors are on staff at Air 1, solely for the purpose of counseling those in distress. Listeners can call in and receive assistance from these trained professionals who provide aid for a broad spectrum of circumstances, ranging from domestic issues, addictions, felony offenses, suicide contemplation and depression. The unwavering availability of these resources and the competent assistance they provide are essential to a healthy community and are especially cherished by those who would otherwise have no where else to turn for help.

Perhaps one of the services most appreciated by parents, is the child-friendly environment provided for under-age listeners. Air 1 broadcasts over the airwaves music and commentary free of profanity, crass humor, and raunchy dialogue. Attentive parents have no qualms about allowing this clean and moral station to reach the ears of their impressionable young ones. Air 1 also plays messages in between songs that entreat listeners to donate their time to improving the communities. These messages promote the active support of local homeless shelters and even an international mission to alleviate impoverished orphans in Cambodia. Some messages contain parental strategies suggested by Christian psychologists. Others share tips relating to marital health and conflict resolution. Some narratives relate a personal account of how Jesus Christ has dramatically impacted their lives. Needless to say, these messages uplift listeners and encourage them to improve not only the charitable institutions in their community and world-wide, but also the personal relationships in their own lives. Depriving the public of

No. of Copies rec'd
List ABCDE

0

RECEIVED & INSPECTED

NOV 8 - 2004

FCC - MAILROOM

To Whom It May Concern,

I was deeply disturbed to hear that a proposal to expand LPFM services would take priority over the current FM stations, like Air 1. Air 1 provides an invaluable service to hundreds of thousands of listeners through its FM translator. The Christian music played on this station is upbeat, inspirational and truly lifts the heart of all who listen. I am a Freshman in High school and Air 1 reaches my peers in an extremely rare way. In the mainstream world of music, violent, offensive and often hopeless messages are communicated to teenage audiences through the music's lyrics. In comparison, Air 1 sends the message of God's love and hope into cities, homes, schools and work places all across America. My church's youth group plays Air 1 every week and I have seen first hand the impact it has on my peers. Friends, acquaintances and strangers all have been affected by the positive messages Air 1 communicates, forsaking secular music and faithfully tuning into to Air 1 daily. The immense value of the station's musical content is indescribable. Air 1 takes special care to encourage its listeners to become better people and to draw near to God, and in return, has accumulated a large and diverse following, ranging from rehabilitated teenagers, parents, young adults, and even children.

Air 1 is not only an immeasurable blessing in my own life but it provides many necessary services to the general public. Air 1 is intimately connected with churches across America and informs music-lovers of up upcoming concerts, events and festivals. But the Air 1 radio station goes far above and beyond just playing contemporary music and informing the public of impending events; it provides twenty-four hour Christian support to Christians and non-Christians alike. A hotline where listeners can submit prayer requests any time, day or night, strengthens the Christian community and lets others know that someone does care about their life's struggles. The staff of Air 1 convenes multiple times per day to pray for the situations affecting their listeners. Five full-time pastors are on staff at Air 1, solely for the purpose of counseling those in distress. Listeners can call in and receive assistance from these trained professionals who provide aid for a broad spectrum of circumstances, ranging from domestic issues, addictions, felony offenses, suicide contemplation and depression. The unswerving availability of these resources and the competent assistance they provide are essential to a healthy community and are especially cherished by those who would otherwise have no where else to turn for help.

No. of Copies rec'd
List ABCDE

2

Perhaps one of the services most appreciated by parents, is the child-friendly environment provided for under-age listeners. Air 1 broadcasts over the airwaves music and commentary free of profanity, crass humor, and raunchy dialogue. Attentive parents have no qualms about allowing this clean and moral station to reach the ears of their impressionable young ones. Air 1 also plays messages in between songs that entreat listeners to donate their time to improving the communities. These messages promote the active support of local homeless shelters and even an international mission to alleviate impoverished orphans in Cambodia. Some messages contain parental strategies suggested by Christian psychologists. Others share tips relating to marital health and conflict resolution. Some narratives relate a personal account of how Jesus Christ has dramatically impacted their lives. Needless to say, these messages uplift listeners and encourage them to improve not only the charitable institutions in their community and world-wide, but also the personal relationships in their own lives. Depriving the public of such powerful and constructive resources would be severely detrimental to individuals and the community as a whole.

If Air 1 were to be taken off the air, the general public would lose one of the last remaining sources of positive influence. There would be no music communicating the hope and joy of Jesus Christ to troubled teenagers. Youth groups would have no contemporary music to play at their gatherings. Parents would be deprived of the safe radio environment they have come to depend on for their children. Young adults would have no upbeat inspirational music to sing along with while driving. And the influential voices promoting community service and fraternity would forever be silenced. I can honestly not fathom how different my life and the lives of people in my acquaintance would be if Air 1 was not there to turn to. Please, in light of this radio station's importance, reconsider the proposed rule changes that would force Air 1 off the air. It means too much to too many, for Federal Communications Commission to ignore.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Maria Smith". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first name "Maria" being more prominent than the last name "Smith".

RECEIVED & INSPECTED

NOV 8 - 2004

FCC - MAILROOM

To Whom It May Concern,

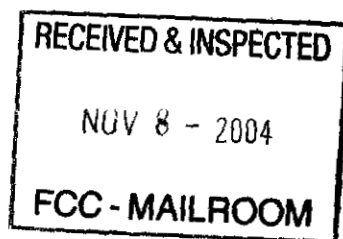

I was deeply disturbed to hear that a proposal to expand LPFM services would take priority over the current FM stations, like Air 1. Air 1 provides an invaluable service to hundreds of thousands of listeners through its FM translator. The Christian music played on this station is upbeat, inspirational and truly lifts the heart of all who listen. I am a father of three, and Air 1 reaches the youth in an extremely rare way. In the mainstream world of music, violent, offensive and often hopeless messages are communicated to teenage audiences through the music's lyrics. In comparison, Air 1 sends the message of God's love and hope into cities, homes, schools and work places all across America. The student's youth groups play Air 1 every week and I have seen first hand the impact it has on the youth. Friends, acquaintances and strangers all have been affected by the positive messages Air 1 communicates, forsaking secular music and faithfully tuning into to Air 1 daily. The immense value of the station's musical content is indescribable. Air 1 takes special care to encourage its listeners to become better people and to draw near to God, and in return, has accumulated a large and diverse following, ranging from rehabilitated teenagers, parents, young adults, and even children.

Air 1 is not only an immeasurable blessing in my own life but it provides many necessary services to the general public. Air 1 is intimately connected with churches across America and informs music-lovers of up upcoming concerts, events and festivals. But the Air 1 radio station goes far above and beyond just playing contemporary music and informing the public of impending events; it provides twenty-four hour Christian support to Christians and non-Christians alike. A hotline where listeners can submit prayer requests any time, day or night, strengthens the Christian community and lets others know that someone does care about their life's struggles. The staff of Air 1 convenes multiple times per day to pray for the situations affecting their listeners. Five full-time pastors are on staff at Air 1, solely for the purpose of counseling those in distress. Listeners can call in and receive assistance from these trained professionals who provide aid for a broad spectrum of circumstances, ranging from domestic issues, addictions, felony offenses, suicide contemplation and depression. The unswerving availability of these resources and the competent assistance they provide are essential to a

No. of Copies rec'd
List ABCDE

2

To Whom It May Concern,
We are writing because we have been informed that LPFM may take priority over FM translators.
I do hope that this DOES NOT HAPPEN!
The 2 radio stations that my family and many other families in my community listen to are on FM translators. Many of us depend on these radio stations for God's word daily. Air 1 and KLOVE are as well for spreading God's word is a spirit-filled pastor. I pray that you would keep FM translator in existence for the sake of spiritual health.

Thank You
Melody Linn
Lyneth Gonzales
Mickie Cisneros
Indie Oremstead
Kayla Hill
Kristen Smith
Brenda Dawson

No. of Copies rec'd
List ABCDE

0

healthy community and are especially cherished by those who would otherwise have no where else to turn for help.

Perhaps one of the services most appreciated by parents, is the child-friendly environment provided for under-age listeners. Air 1 broadcasts over the airwaves music and commentary free of profanity, crass humor, and raunchy dialogue. Attentive parents have no qualms about allowing this clean and moral station to reach the ears of their impressionable young ones. Air 1 also plays messages in between songs that entreat listeners to donate their time to improving the communities. These messages promote the active support of local homeless shelters and even an international mission to alleviate impoverished orphans in Cambodia. Some messages contain parental strategies suggested by Christian psychologists. Others share tips relating to marital health and conflict resolution. Some narratives relate a personal account of how Jesus Christ has dramatically impacted their lives. Needless to say, these messages uplift listeners and encourage them to improve not only the charitable institutions in their community and world-wide, but also the personal relationships in their own lives. Depriving the public of such powerful and constructive resources would be severely detrimental to individuals and the community as a whole.

If Air 1 were to be taken off the air, the general public would lose one of the last remaining sources of positive influence. There would be no music communicating the hope and joy of Jesus Christ to troubled teenagers. Youth groups would have no contemporary music to play at their gatherings. Parents would be deprived of the safe radio environment they have come to depend on for their children. Young adults would have no upbeat inspirational music to sing along with while driving. And the influential voices promoting community service and fraternity would forever be silenced. I can honestly not fathom how different my life and the lives of people in my acquaintance would be if Air 1 was not there to turn to. Please, in light of this radio station's importance, reconsider the proposed rule changes that would force Air 1 off the air. It means too much to too many, for Federal Communications Commission to ignore.

Sincerely,

Darrell Smith

RECEIVED & INSPECTED

NOV 8 - 2004

FCC MAIL ROOM

To Whom It May Concern,

I was deeply disturbed to hear that a proposal to expand LPFM services would take priority over the current FM stations, like Air 1. Air 1 provides an invaluable service to hundreds of thousands of listeners through its FM translator. The Christian music played on this station is upbeat, inspirational and truly lifts the heart of all who listen. I am a bachelorette in my twenties, and Air 1 reaches the people I work with in an extremely rare way. In the mainstream world of music, violent, offensive and often hopeless messages are communicated to audiences through the music's lyrics. In comparison, Air 1 sends the message of God's love and hope into cities, homes, schools and work places all across America. The church's youth groups and single's groups play Air 1 every week and I have seen first hand the impact it has on the attendees. Friends, acquaintances and strangers all have been affected by the positive messages Air 1 communicates, forsaking secular music and faithfully tuning into to Air 1 daily. The immense value of the station's musical content is indescribable. Air 1 takes special care to encourage its listeners to become better people and to draw near to God, and in return, has accumulated a large and diverse following, ranging from rehabilitated teenagers, parents, young adults, and even children.

Air 1 is not only an immeasurable blessing in my own life but it provides many necessary services to the general public. Air 1 is intimately connected with churches across America and informs music-lovers of up upcoming concerts, events and festivals. But the Air 1 radio station goes far above and beyond just playing contemporary music and informing the public of impending events; it provides twenty-four hour Christian support to Christians and non-Christians alike. A hotline where listeners can submit prayer requests any time, day or night, strengthens the Christian community and lets others know that someone does care about their life's struggles. The staff of Air 1 convenes multiple times per day to pray for the situations affecting their listeners. Five full-time pastors are on staff at Air 1, solely for the purpose of counseling those in distress. Listeners can call in and receive assistance from these trained professionals who provide aid for a broad spectrum of circumstances, ranging from domestic issues, addictions, felony offenses, suicide contemplation and depression. The unswerving availability of these resources and the competent assistance they provide are essential to a healthy community and are especially cherished by those who would otherwise have no where else to turn for help.

No. of Copies rec'd _____
List ABCDE _____

Perhaps one of the services most appreciated by parents, is the child-friendly environment provided for under-age listeners. Air 1 broadcasts over the airwaves music and commentary free of profanity, crass humor, and raunchy dialogue. Attentive parents have no qualms about allowing this clean and moral station to reach the ears of their impressionable young ones. Air 1 also plays messages in between songs that entreat listeners to donate their time to improving the communities. These messages promote the active support of local homeless shelters and even an international mission to alleviate impoverished orphans in Cambodia. Some messages contain parental strategies suggested by Christian psychologists. Others share tips relating to marital health and conflict resolution. Some narratives relate a personal account of how Jesus Christ has dramatically impacted their lives. Needless to say, these messages uplift listeners and encourage them to improve not only the charitable institutions in their community and world-wide, but also the personal relationships in their own lives. Depriving the public of such powerful and constructive resources would be severely detrimental to individuals and the community as a whole.

If Air 1 were to be taken off the air, the general public would lose one of the last remaining sources of positive influence. There would be no music communicating the hope and joy of Jesus Christ to troubled teenagers. Youth groups would have no contemporary music to play at their gatherings. Parents would be deprived of the safe radio environment they have come to depend on for their children. Young adults would have no upbeat inspirational music to sing along with while driving. And the influential voices promoting community service and fraternity would forever be silenced. I can honestly not fathom how different my life and the lives of people in my acquaintance would be if Air 1 was not there to turn to. Please, in light of this radio station's importance, reconsider the proposed rule changes that would force Air 1 off the air. It means too much to too many, for Federal Communications Commission to ignore.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "Joe Petilde". The signature is fluid and cursive, with a large, sweeping initial "J".

RECEIVED & INSPECTED

NOV 8 - 2004

ECC MAIL ROOM

To Whom It May Concern,

I was deeply disturbed to hear that a proposal to expand ~~MTN 104.1~~ would take priority over the current FM stations, like Air 1. Air 1 provides an invaluable service to hundreds of thousands of listeners through its FM translator. The Christian music played on this station is upbeat, inspirational and truly lifts the heart of all who listen. I am a bachelor in my twenties, and Air 1 reaches the people I work with in an extremely rare way. In the mainstream world of music, violent, offensive and often hopeless messages are communicated to audiences through the music's lyrics. In comparison, Air 1 sends the message of God's love and hope into cities, homes, schools and work places all across America. The churches's youth groups and single's groups play Air 1 every week and I have seen first hand the impact it has on the attendees. Friends, acquaintances and strangers all have been affected by the positive messages Air 1 communicates, forsaking secular music and faithfully tuning into to Air 1 daily. The immense value of the station's musical content is indescribable. Air 1 takes special care to encourage its listeners to become better people and to draw near to God, and in return, has accumulated a large and diverse following, ranging from rehabilitated teenagers, parents, young adults, and even children.

Air 1 is not only an immeasurable blessing in my own life but it provides many and informing the public of impending events; it provides twenty-four hour Christian necessary services to the general public. Air 1 is intimately connected with churches support to Christians and non-Christians alike. A hotline where listeners can submit across America and informs music lovers of upcoming concerts, events and festivals. prayer requests any time, day or night, strengthens the Christian community and lets But the Air 1 radio station goes far above and beyond just playing contemporary music others know that someone does care about their life's struggles. The staff of Air 1 convenes multiple times per day to pray for the situations affecting their listeners. Five full-time pastors are on staff at Air 1, solely for the purpose of counseling those in distress. Listeners can call in and receive assistance from these trained professionals who provide aid for a broad spectrum of circumstances, ranging from domestic issues, addictions, felony offenses, suicide contemplation and depression. The unswerving availability of these resources and the competent assistance they provide are essential to a healthy community and are especially cherished by those who would otherwise have no where else to turn for help.

No. of Copies rec'd
List ABCDE

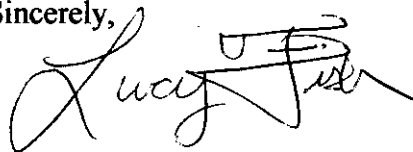

0

Perhaps one of the services most appreciated by parents, is the child-friendly environment provided for under-age listeners. Air 1 broadcasts over the airwaves music and commentary free of profanity, crass humor, and raunchy dialogue. Attentive parents have no qualms about allowing this clean and moral station to reach the ears of their impressionable young ones. Air 1 also plays messages in between songs that entreat listeners to donate their time to improving the communities. These messages promote the active support of local homeless shelters and even an international mission to alleviate impoverished orphans in Cambodia. Some messages contain parental strategies suggested by Christian psychologists. Others share tips relating to marital health and conflict resolution. Some narratives relate a personal account of how Jesus Christ has dramatically impacted their lives. Needless to say, these messages uplift listeners and encourage them to improve not only the charitable institutions in their community and world-wide, but also the personal relationships in their own lives. Depriving the public of such powerful and constructive resources would be severely detrimental to individuals and the community as a whole.

If Air 1 were to be taken off the air, the general public would lose one of the last remaining sources of positive influence. There would be no music communicating the hope and joy of Jesus Christ to troubled teenagers. Youth groups would have no contemporary music to play at their gatherings. Parents would be deprived of the safe radio environment they have come to depend on for their children. Young adults would have no upbeat inspirational music to sing along with while driving. And the influential voices promoting community service and fraternity would forever be silenced. I can honestly not fathom how different my life and the lives of people in my acquaintance would be if Air 1 was not there to turn to. Please, in light of this radio station's importance, reconsider the proposed rule changes that would force Air 1 off the air. It means too much to too many, for Federal Communications Commission to ignore.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Lucy Fisher". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first name "Lucy" written in a larger, more prominent script than the last name "Fisher".

RECEIVED & INSPECTED

NOV 8 - 2004

FCC - MAIL ROOM

To Whom It May Concern,

I was deeply disturbed to hear that a proposal to expand LPFM services would take priority over the current FM stations, like Air 1. Air 1 provides an invaluable service to hundreds of thousands of listeners through its FM translator. The Christian music played on this station is upbeat, inspirational and truly lifts the heart of all who listen. I am a Senior in High School and Air 1 reaches my peers in an extremely rare way. In the mainstream world of music, violent, offensive and often hopeless messages are communicated to teenage audiences through the music's lyrics. In comparison, Air 1 sends the message of God's love and hope into cities, homes, schools and work places all across America. My church's youth group plays Air 1 every week and I have seen first hand the impact it has on my peers. Friends, acquaintances and strangers all have been affected by the positive messages Air 1 communicates, forsaking secular music and faithfully tuning into to Air 1 daily. The immense value of the station's musical content is indescribable. Air 1 takes special care to encourage its listeners to become better people and to draw near to God, and in return, has accumulated a large and diverse following, ranging from rehabilitated teenagers, parents, young adults, and even children.

Air 1 is not only an immeasurable blessing in my own life but it provides many necessary services to the general public. Air 1 is intimately connected with churches across America and informs music-lovers of up upcoming concerts, events and festivals. But the Air 1 radio station goes far above and beyond just playing contemporary music and informing the public of impending events; it provides twenty-four hour Christian support to Christians and non-Christians alike. A hotline where listeners can submit prayer requests any time, day or night, strengthens the Christian community and lets others know that someone does care about their life's struggles. The staff of Air 1 convenes multiple times per day to pray for the situations affecting their listeners. Five full-time pastors are on staff at Air 1, solely for the purpose of counseling those in distress. Listeners can call in and receive assistance from these trained professionals who provide aid for a broad spectrum of circumstances, ranging from domestic issues, addictions, felony offenses, suicide contemplation and depression. The unswerving availability of these resources and the competent assistance they provide are essential to a healthy community and are especially cherished by those who would otherwise have no where else to turn for help.

No. of Copies rec'd
List ABCDE

0

Perhaps one of the services most appreciated by parents, is the child-friendly environment provided for under-age listeners. Air 1 broadcasts over the airwaves music and commentary free of profanity, crass humor, and raunchy dialogue. Attentive parents have no qualms about allowing this clean and moral station to reach the ears of their impressionable young ones. Air 1 also plays messages in between songs that entreat listeners to donate their time to improving the communities. These messages promote the active support of local homeless shelters and even an international mission to alleviate impoverished orphans in Cambodia. Some messages contain parental strategies suggested by Christian psychologists. Others share tips relating to marital health and conflict resolution. Some narratives relate a personal account of how Jesus Christ has dramatically impacted their lives. Needless to say, these messages uplift listeners and encourage them to improve not only the charitable institutions in their community and world-wide, but also the personal relationships in their own lives. Depriving the public of such powerful and constructive resources would be severely detrimental to individuals and the community as a whole.

If Air 1 were to be taken off the air, the general public would lose one of the last remaining sources of positive influence. There would be no music communicating the hope and joy of Jesus Christ to troubled teenagers. Youth groups would have no contemporary music to play at their gatherings. Parents would be deprived of the safe radio environment they have come to depend on for their children. Young adults would have no upbeat inspirational music to sing along with while driving. And the influential voices promoting community service and fraternity would forever be silenced. I can honestly not fathom how different my life and the lives of people in my acquaintance would be if Air 1 was not there to turn to. Please, in light of this radio station's importance, reconsider the proposed rule changes that would force Air 1 off the air. It means too much to too many, for Federal Communications Commission to ignore.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, reading "Nathaniel Sehl". The signature is written in a cursive, flowing style with a large initial 'N' and a long, sweeping tail on the 'l'.

To Whom It May Concern,

I was deeply disturbed to hear that a proposal to expand LPM services would take priority over the current FM stations, like Air 1. Air 1 provides an invaluable service to hundreds of thousands of listeners through its FM translator. The Christian music played on this station is upbeat, inspirational and truly lifts the heart of all who listen. I am a grandmother and Air 1 reaches my grandchildren in an extremely rare way. In the mainstream world of music, violent, offensive and often hopeless messages are communicated to teenage audiences through the music's lyrics. In comparison, Air 1 sends the message of God's love and hope into cities, homes, schools and work places all across America. My grandchildren's youth group plays Air 1 every week and I have seen first hand the impact it has the children. Friends, acquaintances and strangers all have been affected by the positive messages Air 1 communicates, forsaking secular music and faithfully tuning into to Air 1 daily. The immense value of the station's musical content is indescribable. Air 1 takes special care to encourage its listeners to become better people and to draw near to God, and in return, has accumulated a large and diverse following, ranging from rehabilitated teenagers, parents, young adults, and even children.

Air 1 is not only an immeasurable blessing in my own life but it provides many necessary services to the general public. Air 1 is intimately connected with churches across America and informs music-lovers of up upcoming concerts, events and festivals. But the Air 1 radio station goes far above and beyond just playing contemporary music and informing the public of impending events; it provides twenty-four hour Christian support to Christians and non-Christians alike. A hotline where listeners can submit prayer requests any time, day or night, strengthens the Christian community and lets others know that someone does care about their life's struggles. The staff of Air 1 convenes multiple times per day to pray for the situations affecting their listeners. Five full-time pastors are on staff at Air 1, solely for the purpose of counseling those in distress. Listeners can call in and receive assistance from these trained professionals who provide aid for a broad spectrum of circumstances, ranging from domestic issues, addictions, felony offenses, suicide contemplation and depression. The unswerving availability of these resources and the competent assistance they provide are essential to a healthy community and are especially cherished by those who would otherwise have no where else to turn for help.

No. of Copies rec'd _____
List ABCDE _____

0

Perhaps one of the services most appreciated by parents, is the child-friendly environment provided for under-age listeners. Air 1 broadcasts over the airwaves music and commentary free of profanity, crass humor, and raunchy dialogue. Attentive parents have no qualms about allowing this clean and moral station to reach the ears of their impressionable young ones. Air 1 also plays messages in between songs that entreat listeners to donate their time to improving the communities. These messages promote the active support of local homeless shelters and even an international mission to alleviate impoverished orphans in Cambodia. Some messages contain parental strategies suggested by Christian psychologists. Others share tips relating to marital health and conflict resolution. Some narratives relate a personal account of how Jesus Christ has dramatically impacted their lives. Needless to say, these messages uplift listeners and encourage them to improve not only the charitable institutions in their community and world-wide, but also the personal relationships in their own lives. Depriving the public of such powerful and constructive resources would be severely detrimental to individuals and the community as a whole.

If Air 1 were to be taken off the air, the general public would lose one of the last remaining sources of positive influence. There would be no music communicating the hope and joy of Jesus Christ to troubled teenagers. Youth groups would have no contemporary music to play at their gatherings. Parents would be deprived of the safe radio environment they have come to depend on for their children. Young adults would have no upbeat inspirational music to sing along with while driving. And the influential voices promoting community service and fraternity would forever be silenced. I can honestly not fathom how different my life and the lives of people in my acquaintance would be if Air 1 was not there to turn to. Please, in light of this radio station's importance, reconsider the proposed rule changes that would force Air 1 off the air. It means too much to too many, for Federal Communications Commission to ignore.

Sincerely,

Sarah Storm